

Charlotte Office Provides Meals to Those in Need

November 23, 2009

On Monday November 23rd, the Charlotte office's generosity spurred touching stories from the families receiving 18 Thanksgiving meals.

The meals were delivered to two local organizations in Charlotte; Love Inc. and Brookstone Schools. Of the nine meals delivered to Love Inc. at least 29 individuals will benefit from the Charlotte office's generosity.

This heartfelt giving has touched many lives and provided meals to many appreciative families. The meals included a turkey, vegetables, stuffing, biscuits, and desserts. One meal was given to a grandmother, dying of cancer, who is raising her grandchildren and is elated to provide a full Thanksgiving meal. Another recipient cares for his blind mother and could not bring himself to tell her that they could not afford Thanksgiving dinner this year. When Love Inc. shared the news that he would receive a meal, he broke down in tears. Another lady was so excited and appreciative, because not only will her family have a nice Thanksgiving Day meal, but it will also be the first turkey she has ever cooked!

It was a great day for all involved, and the Charlotte office could not have been more proud to have made some holiday dreams come true.
